Here's what past attendees had to say about this program:

"I wish I could spend another day doing group work. I learned so much from others perspectives."

Lisa Weiler Haskins,

Vice President, Educational Assistants Association

"I am satisfied with new learnings whenever I can connect them to my lived personal and professional experience. I did."

Jennifer Mitchell,

Coordinator, Professional Relations Services, ETFO

"The role play was hands-on, well organized in advance and provided an opportunity to learn while at the same time being directly involved in the process."

"The instructors were all able to connect their topics with something that participants can relate to in either their practice or everyday life."
