2:30 p.m. Collaborative Decision-Making and Information Sharing for Ontario Health Teams (OHT's)
Ira Parghi, INQ Law

The transition towards Ontario Health Teams (OHTs) raises important questions about collaborative decision-making and the sharing of personal health information (PHI), client privacy and compliance with PHIPA. This session will consider what the move towards OHTs means for healthcare organizations from a privacy and data sharing perspective. It will address the following:

- What is an Ontario Health Team?
- What is the decision-making process?
- What are the goals of information sharing between OHTs?
- How will OHTs manage PHIPA requirements?
- What safeguards can OHTs deploy to protect patient privacy?
- How can OHTs approach information sharing in a way that protects marginalized populations and support equity, diversity and inclusion?

3:15 p.m. Health Law Privacy: A Potpourri
Laurie Turner, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

This session will include a discussion of recent decisions of the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario, of particular note to healthcare professionals and organizations, along with addressing common privacy-related dilemmas arising in healthcare.
