

ONTARIO'S CONSTRUCTION ACT – Practical Considerations for Managing Disputes and Key Risks in 2022 and Beyond

“Very good. How daunting this will all be for an industry better at building things than at process [and] costs will go up to implement all of this.”

Brian Swartz, Executive Legal Advisor, Aecon Group Inc.

The number of disputes is rising. Virtual proceedings and pandemic impacts continue.

Get up to date on how to better manage escalating risks and your evolving obligations.

Designed for the construction industry and their legal advisors, get equipped with the latest crucial legal and practice updates from multi-disciplinary experts and decision-makers.

- Where are things at in 2022? How has the Act helped, and how is industry actually dealing with gaps, conflicts and uncertainty?
- How to effectively use contractual language and field tactics for managing your evolving legal obligations and mitigating risks due to COVID-19
- Practical considerations for navigating various dispute processes under the Act – with distinctions based on type of proceeding (including virtual): mediation, arbitration, litigation, adjudication and the interface with liens

PLUS, don't miss the live mock adjudication featuring an expert demonstration, insights and top tips for navigating key challenges at each stage of the adjudication process – from the perspective of the adjudicator and the parties to the adjudication.
