Over the course of five intensive one-day modules, this unique, interdisciplinary program will give you practical and relevant information on the various areas of law that intersect with caring for elderly clients.

This program goes beyond the traditional approach to the subject matter by exploring the ageing process to better understand the circumstances of older adults. There is an emphasis on skills-based learning, with lectures supplemented with group exercises, role play simulations, case studies and peer interactions.

Topics include consent, capacity and substitute decision making, powers of attorney, financial planning, privacy, estate planning and family law, end of life, abuse, and effective advocacy.

You will be able to expand your professional network and learn from: senior lawyers, physicians, representatives from The Office of the Public Guardian and Trustee, Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care, the Judiciary, Consent and Capacity Board, the Office of the Chief Coroner and the Correctional Investigator, Canada.

This diversity ensures you will learn a wide range of perspectives, providing in-depth coverage of the major issues.

“Case studies and real life examples help bring the learning to life.”

“Great content and excellent speakers – a real diversity of topics and experiences.”

“Really eye-opening to learn what happens in retirement homes and LTC.”

“My only complaint for this program as a whole, is that the presenters are so engaging that it leaves me wanting more....”

“Great presenters and facilitators. Group work was fun and great for putting the material into context.”

Gain the knowledge you need to handle the challenging area of Elder Law, including:

- The role of advocacy: tips for being an effective advocate for older adults
- The ageing process and recognizing and combating ageism
- Tackling the misuse of powers of attorney
- The role of the Public Guardian and Trustee
- Privacy Rights in long term care, retirement and community settings
- Estate planning: communicating with elderly clients and their families
- Trauma-informed services for elderly clients
- Tackling elder investment fraud and financial exploitation
- The latest on capacity, substitute decision-making and health-care consent
- Elder law complaints to regulated health bodies
- Criminal law issues – older adult as the accused party
- Elder law issues and challenges for indigenous communities
- Long-term care home negligence and personal injury
- The future of elder law
- Predatory marriages
- Protecting retirement home residents
